Pulau Paya Wetlands & Putrajaya Pink Mosque with Traditional Boat Ride

About this trip

Step into a world where nature takes center stage at Paya Indah Wetlands, a serene eco-tourism park located just outside of Kuala Lumpur. This tranquil sanctuary is home to lush landscapes, shimmering lakes, and a diverse range of wildlife including hippos, crocodiles, exotic birds, and free roaming animals. Perfect for nature lovers, families, and eco-adventurers, visitors can enjoy leisurely walks along scenic trails, birdwatch from observation towers, cycle through peaceful surroundings, or simply relax by the lakeside. Educational and interactive, the wetlands also offer guided tours and conservation programs that give deeper insight into Malaysia's rich biodiversity.

Whether you're seeking a peaceful escape, a photoworthy nature retreat, or a family friendly outdoor experience, Paya Indah Wetlands promises a refreshing getaway into the heart of nature just a short drive from the city.

See Kuala Lumpur's calm side with a Putrajaya sightseeing cruise. Get on a boat and have a relaxing cruise at Putrajaya Lake to see the wonders of the city in a different perspective. See the Putra Mosque, the principal mosque of Putrajaya, which houses the Malaysian Prime Minister's office. Continue the tour with a visit to Putrajaya Government Centre and don't miss out on exploring the iconic Perdana Putra in detail. Incorporating a mix of architectural elements from Turkestan, Kazakhstan and Morocco, it's a true sight to admire. Finally, get to see the grand Putra Bridge and all its wonders up close before heading back to your hotel.
